LARGE CROWDS SEE
ODEON VAUDEVILLEThree Excellent Acts Are Presented and All Make Hits.Large audiences greeted every performance of the splendid vaudeville show at the Odeon yesterday. There is not a dull moment in the entire performance. The feature act on the bill is the three Richardson sisters in a singing and rope acrobatic dancing act, and it is certainly a very clever act, while Prevost and Goulette, in a comedy acrobatic act are simply great and make an instantaneous hit with the patrons of the Odeon. There will be a complete change of vaudeville Thursday.There's one railroad in the country that is proud of its record of accidents.
That's the little spur of a California railroad on which Kalem's "Hazard of a thrilling picture scene successfully

APPLICATION FOR PARDON.
Notice is hereby given that on or about the 10th day of March, 1916, an application will be filed with E. G. Pierson, Pardon Attorney, Charleston, West Virginia, for the pardon of Ben Plum, convicted of the crime of Robbery, at the November Term, 1912, of the Criminal Court of Harrison County and sentenced to imprisonment in the West Virginia Penitentiary for the period of 7 years.
Signed: BEN PLUM.SAYS DRINK LEMONADE FOR RHEUMATISMRelief from rheumatism and sciatica can be obtained by drinking lemonade and avoiding alcoholic drinks.To get rid of this stubborn disease, however, to stop the twinges, pain and swelling, and drive the poisonous accumulations from the joints and muscles, all generously inclined druggists will tell you to take half a teaspoonful of Rheuma daily until all misery ceases.Rheuma is a powerful remedy, because only a powerful remedy can overcome such a terrible disease; but Rheuma acts speedily—the first dose taken and you'll know that you will soon be your healthy, happy self again.Wells-Haymaker Co. and all druggists know what Rheuma will do, for they sell a great deal of it and guarantee that two 50c-bottles will overcome rheumatic agony or money back.—Advertisement.One of the greatest actresses the world has ever known, Sarah Bernhardt, appears in the first Bluebird production, "Jeanne Dore," at the Orpheum theatre today. In this immortal French masterpiece Madame Bernhardt scored one of her greatest triumphs. The production reaches far beyond the average and is said by critics to be one of the greatestSarah Bernhardt "Jeanne Dore"
FIRST RELEASE OF "BLUEBIRD" PHOTO PLAYSachievements in the photo dramatic art. This brilliant artist who, for nearly half a century has crowded the world's greatest theaters with worshipping multitudes, eager to witness her sublime portrayals, is supported by a great cast in this drama and her acting in the title role defies criticism.
Tomorrow, the popular star of "After the Ball," Herbert Kelsey and Edie Shannon, will be seen in "The Sphinx," a marvelous spectacle in five acts.Klaw and Branger declare that the report of Edie Shannon's engagement to play with Sir Herbert Tree is premature. The engagement, however, has been discussed.Orrin Johnson and a company of ten big legitimate stars are seen in the chief attraction at the Bijou, Griffith's Triangle feature, "The Price of Power." It is a play that abounds with powerful and thrilling scenes. A scene representing a great strike of cotton mill employes is exciting and realistic. With this powerful drama feature from the Griffith studio plus the usual hilarious Keystone comedy, "He Did and He Didn't," starring Ros-coe Arbuckle and Mabel Normand, a program of unusual merit is presented.
Bessie Barriscale with Bruce McRae will present "The Green Swamp," a five act Ince feature at the Bijou Wednesday and Thursday. The Keystone offering will be "His Hereafter" with Charles Murray and Louise Fazenda as principals.Florence Reed is to appear in vaudeville in a playlet by John Willard, called "The Pink Ruby." She will have Malcolm Williams as her leading man."LaMont's Merry Makers" appeared at the Palace yesterday and made a good impression with the large crowds present. It is a musical comedy attraction replete with singing, dancing and special comedy features. The show is a continuous laugh producer from start to finish, the comedians springing many new stunts that get over in great shape. The girls are unusually clever, each one introducing a special song number, denoting talent out of the ordinary for chorus girls.Irving, the Musical Gypsy, the vaudeville act on the bill, made a big hit with his musical numbers on different instruments, and was forced to respond to numerous encores. There will be a change of program tomorrow afternoon.The Washington Square Players, an organization making a specialty of one-act plays, are to make a spring tour visiting large cities and colleges.D. W. Griffith's wonderful visualization of Thomas Dixon's great novel of reconstruction in the South in the dark period following the Civil war, screened under the title of "The Birth of a Nation," is drawing large crowds at the Robinson Grand theater, where two showings were given Monday. A largely attended matinee showing was given this afternoon and there will be further exhibitions tonight, and tomorrow afternoon and night.The director put on "The Birth of a Nation" as no other film play—not even "Cabara" or "Quo Vadis"—had been put on. He used half a great stage for his locale, 150 years of American history as his subject; 18,000 people as his actors; 3,000 riders and steeds as his cavalry; 5,000 scenes instead of a few scores or a few hundred. His work dwarfed the old-fashioned stage art to such pettiness that many are wondering whether the so-called "indoor" drama is not doomed to long and possibly total eclipse.Among the distinguished actors in the cast are Henry B. Walthall, Lillian Gish, Mae Marsh, Miriam Cooper, Mary Alden, Josephine Crowell, Ralph Lewis, Joseph Henebery, Raoul Walsh, Donald Crisp, Howard Gaye, George Seigmund, Walter Long, Elmer Clifton and Robert Harron.The result of Mr. Griffith's efforts is a new and stupendous art for which no adequate names has yet been found.
"The Birth of a Nation" combines spectacle, romance, domestic drama, comedy, tragedy, music and mechanical effects into a harmonious ensemble lasting three hours, it epitomizes the life of a nation. This is something the old art could never do.
The obsolete so-called "stage unit" is carried to the winds, and Griffith carries the magnificent story from the introduction of African slavery right through Civil war and reconstruction days to the final real union of South and North in the bonds of love and peace.An historical reproduction of the assassination of President Lincoln, replica of decisive battles of the Civil war, and the gathering of the Kians-men are among the stupendous scenes that feature this great picture. While the story is largely a story of war, war is not glorified. Instead, its horrors are vividly impressed upon the

OF CHAMPIONSHIP RACEWest Virginia's Victory Monday Night Eliminated Methodist Five from Race.MORGANTOWN, Feb. 29.—West Virginia Wesleyan College was eliminated as a state championship contender in basketball here Monday night, when the West Virginia University basketball five decisively defeated the visitors by a score of 32 to 7 in the second win of the series.
The victory Monday night leaves three teams in the state championship race. They are Fairmont Normal, Davis and Elkins College and West Virginia University.Once again Fairmont Normal enable West Virginia to win, for it was the work of Frank Ice, the old Fairmont Normal star, at center for the Varsity, that started the swing of victory to the Mountaineers and kept it there to the end.The final whistle of the game Monday night found the Mountaineers on the long end of the 32 to 7 score.
Wesleyan registered but two field goals, one coming a few minutes after the game started and the last one but a few minutes before the final whistle in the second half.The largest crowd to attend a game here this season thronged the Ark and witnessed one of the wildest basketball contests ever seen here.
After a half of seemingly slow playing during which both teams confined themselves largely to defensive play, passed deliberately, and shot wildly, resulting in a 5 to 5 tie score, the West Virginians coming back in the second half with an offense which swept the Upshur county contingent completely off its feet and before which it was helpless. Ice, Rodgers and Lattener turned in goal after goal in quick succession until it was apparent there was not the slightest hope for the visitors.Wesleyan scored first on a foul which G. Morrison tossed in cleanly.
He missed three fouls in succession, and then Morrison, of West Virginia, tied the count with a foul goal. Wesleyan scored another point from the foul line and West Virginia then went ahead on a field goal which Lat-tenter tossed in a grand stand play from the side lines with one hand.
Shumaker, for Wesleyan, then executed a scientific dribble down the floor and scored the field goal in perfect style, making it 4 to 3 for Wesleyan. In a skirmish under the West Virginia basket, it was held ball, and Ice tipped in the next basket on the tossup over G. Morrison's head, making it 5 to 4 for West Virginia. Wesleyan tied it up on a foul goal. This scoring required twenty minutes of play and gives an idea of the alleged basketball of the first half.The third game of the series, which was to have been played at Fairmont Friday night was called off following the game Monday night, as managers of both teams thought it would not be profitable to stage the third game since West Virginia had already won two games.Lineup and summary:
